the treasure

his life was measured
in moments and steps.
each day latened
and he only got
as far as his feet
would take him.
then the moment came.
he looked down
in mid-step and
there it was-
that which made sense
of all the moments,
all the steps.
he stopped, gasped, shouted.
he stood still
and so did time.
the moment he picked it up,
it became him, and
time became space
and dissolved into
eternity.
