It's always a good time for a thank you - but especially now!

Thank you to everyone who helped make our Olde Glory Days booth a great success. Thank you to everyone who provided a friendly face for the booth. Thank you to everyone who baked cookies. Thank you to everyone who helped set up and clean up. And, thank you to Fred McAllister for coordinating it all! It was a blessing to see all the smiling faces as we gave away the cookies!

An extra-special thank you to Ross Fulton for filling in for me on Sunday morning. I am very grateful to Ross for covering so wonderfully on such very short notice. I am really looking forward to being back in worship with you on Sunday.

Thank you, also, to Don Eaton for leading the singing at the Olde Glory Days Hymn Sing. We had a good group gather to lift our hearts and voices in song.

But most of all: Thank you, Lord, for all the blessings we enjoy. We can't begin to comprehend all the blessings you shower on us every day!

Have a blessed week! I look forward to seeing you Sunday!
