What a great weekend! It begins with all the festivities of Olde Glory Days. It will be great to be in our booth and see so many people from the community. It's also great to see so many people from our church helping to make it all happen. I'm proud of how active our church is in our community.

Then Sunday morning we will celebrate the blessings we enjoy as Americans. We can start with the freedom to gather for worship each Sunday. That basic freedom of religion is a gift we should never take for granted. There are so many rights and freedoms we enjoy in this nation. I encourage you to take time this Fourth of July holiday to pause and count your blessings. Take time also to pray for our nation!

God bless America, the land that we love!
