amiable antinomies

telling the difference
between an ending
and a beginning
is not so much
a matter of intelligence
as it is
a matter of emotion.
even birth
even death
and everything in between
makes an ending
and a beginning.
the way you feel
determines which one
you call it.
this is the time
to go with
your feelings because
whatever you call it,
it is what it is-
both.

The Annual Conference special offering that we will be supporting this year is the "Haiti Water Project". Pure drinking water is a great challenge in Haiti. Our project will be to provide filters for homes that will purify the drinking water. Each filter costs about $100.00. Please give as you are able. Make your check to the church and mark it "Water Project". Mary Jo will take the offering with her to Annual Conference on June 8.

Christian Home Month
May has been designated as Christian Home Month. To honor this designation and our family life we will have home life as the theme for the month. Pray for our families and encourage happy, safe and loving homes.

The Homebound Visitation Team will be taking a break during the summer!

With summer being such a busy time for everyone we are going to put the monthly visitation on hold until September. We still encourage everyone to check in and visit with our homebound members.
