When God called Abram & Sarai (who would become Abraham & Sarah), he told them,

“I will bless you...so that you will be a blessing.”

And the same is true for us. God doesn't bless us just to make our lives comfortable or so we can indulge ourselves. We have been blessed to be a blessing! We have been blessed so we can pass that blessing on to others. Sunday we will celebrate that “blessed to be a blessing” spirit in several ways.

We will be celebrating all the Socks we've collected for kids in need right here in our own community. So far we're to almost 800 pairs. I encourage you to help us reach 1000 pairs. (You can give actual socks or money to help us by socks.) Then in celebration of reaching our initial goal of 600 pairs of socks, the kids will be pelting me, Sam and Jennifer with socks!

At early service we will also be celebrating with our Youth Mission Team headed to Colorado in June. Through the blessing of your generosity we are sending 30+ youth and adults to be a blessing to kids in Colorado as they serve at Wind River Camp.

Then at late service we will be celebrating with all the students who are receiving College Scholarships through the church. We have been blessed to have several families provide funds for college scholarships for students from our church. It will be a blessing to distribute those scholarships to help these students continue their education.

How has God blessed you? Is it with time, talents, treasures? How is God calling you to use your blessings to be a blessing to others? We've all been blessed to be a blessing!
