mother's day 2014

there is an aggravation associated with perfection on the part of those who are not perfect. mom remained the same no matter what the circumstance. excitement and vicissitude seemed impossible for her. she was grace, with its resolute aversion to acrimony, deception and meanness. heaven could come, and she would be the same. hell could come, no difference. she was the anchor that kept our ship from drifting, and she was the giver of wings who encouraged us to soar. she never soared herself but she was abundantly proud when we did. this mitigated the aggravation associated with her perfection.

The date for Dr. Maggi's last Sunday here will be June 22nd. On that day there will only be one service at 10:00. (No 8:30 Service, Sunday School or continental breakfast.)

There will be a farewell reception the day before: Saturday, June 21st from 1:00 p.m. -3:00 p.m. in the Green Room.

The Homebound Visitation Team will be taking a break during the summer!

With summer being such a busy time for everyone we are going to put the monthly visitation on hold until September. We still encourage everyone to check in and visit with our homebound members.
